

Harry J. Huebner is Professor Emeritus of Theology and Philosophy at Canadian Mennonite University in Winnipeg, Canada. He is a graduate of St. Michael's College in Toronto with a PhD in theology. He is married to Agnes Hildebrand, and together they have three children and seven grandchildren. He is a member of Charleswood Mennonite Church, in Winnipeg Manitoba. Chapter 1 in this book dedicated in his honour at his retirement is his life story.

His Works: He is co-author, with David Schroeder, of The Church as Parable: Whatever Happened to Ethics? (1993), author of Echoes of the Word: Theological Ethics in Rhetorical Practice (2005), An Introduction to Christian Ethics: History, Movements, People (2012), a book on his mother, And that's all there is to say: The Story of Margaret (Reimer) Huebner, (2007).

He has edited several books including (with Hajj Muhammad Legenhausen) two collections of presentations of the Shia' Muslim – Mennonite Dialogue, Peace and Justice (2011), and On Being Human (2013).

Dr. Muhammad Ali Shomali was born in Tehran, Iran in 1965. He is currently the director of the Islamic Centre of England. He was before that Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Religions at the Imam Khomeini Education and Research Institute, Qom, Iran (since October 2001). He is also the dean of postgraduate studies of the international section at the Jami'at al-Zahra where the visiting women are studying. He is also the director of the International Institute for Islamic Studies. He is actively involved in interreligious dialogue and has organized or attended conferences in Canada, USA, UK, Poland, Sweden, Ghana, Philippines, Georgia, Italy, Austria, and Kazakhstan.

Dr Mohammad Ali Shomali is a graduate of the Islamic Seminaries of Qum and has also both a BA and an MA in Western Philosophy from the University of Tehran. He has earned his Doctorate in Philosophy from the University of Manchester. His doctoral thesis was on ethical relativism. He did his postdoctoral research on ethical issues related to life and death. He was the Founding Director of the International Institute for Islamic Studies in Qum, IRAN. He has also been the Dean of Postgraduate Studies for the International Students at the Jamiat al-Zahra, the Islamic Seminary for Women in Qum (Iran). He is editor-in-chief of two journals: the Message of Thaqaalayn: A Quarterly Journal of Islamic Studies and the Spiritual Quest: A Biannual Journal of Ethics and Spirituality.

He is very interested in inter-religious dialogue and has organized or attended conferences in UK, Canada, USA, Poland, Sweden, Ghana, Philippines, Georgia, Italy, Austria, Kazakhstan, Tanzania, etc.

His Works: His publications include Self-Knowledge (Tehran, 1996 2006, also translated into Malay, Spanish, Swedish and Kiswahili), Ethical Relativism: An Analysis of the Foundations of Morality (London, 2001; also translated into Malay), Discovering Shi'a Islam (7th edition 2010; also translated into 13 languages), Shi'i Islam: Origins, Faith and Practices (London, 2003 & 2010; also translated into Spanish, Kiswahili & Swedish), Mary, Jesus & Christianity: An Islamic Perspective (2007 and 2012; also translated into Italian). He is also a co-editor of Catholics and Shi'a in Dialogue: Studies in Theology and Spirituality (London: Melisende, 2004 and 2011), Catholic-Shi'a Engagement: Reason and Faith in Theory and Practice (London: Melisende, 2006 and 2011), A Catholic-Shi'a Dialogue: Ethics in Today's Society (London: Melisende, 2008 and 2011) & Monks and Muslims: Monastic and Shi'a Spirituality in Dialogue (Liturgical Press, 2012, USA).